

Kansas Economic Development Alliance

Member Benefits

High-quality continuing education opportunities through conferences and webinars

Relationship-building with top local, regional, and state economic development leaders

Networking tools to collaborate with economic development peers across the state

Legislative advocacy monitoring and support including updates, tracking, and engagement assistance

PREVIEW KEDA

Join a diverse community of economic development professionals unified in building relationships, advancing professional development, and advocating for business in Kansas. Local, state, and regional economic development organizations of all sizes welcome!

Special Rate:

Preview KEDA membership for the discounted price of $110 to see if a full membership next year is a good fit.

Sign up today!

CONTACT US

KEDA@kansasEDA.com

www.kansasEDA.com